Chapter 2: Choosing a Focused Research Topic

Info: We'll take notes about focused research topics and practice choosing research topics.
Time: 15 Minutes

Focused Research Topic Notes

- Authors can't write about a BIG topic.

Why NOT? STOP AND JOT

- Writing about a specific topic helps the reader draw conclusions about the information presented.

- Example:

Focused Research Topic	Unfocused Research Topic
Toucans in the Amazon Rain Forest	Birds in Rainforests

To choose the most focused research topic:

1. Read the question.
2. Circle the subject of the research in all answers.
3. Box in the effect (location, aspect of life, etc.)
4. Eliminate two answer choices that have general subjects and effects.
5. With the 2 remaining answer choices, ask, "Which answer choice has a more specific subject, method, and location?"
