Questions Regarding Race & Gender Bias

"We do not prohibit racial and gender bias in jury selection only to encourage it in jury deliberations. Once seated, a juror should not give free rein to race or gender bias of his or her own. The jury system is a kind of compact which transfers power from the judge to the jury. The juries in turn decide the case in accord with the instructions, defining the relevant issues for consideration. The wise limitations on the authority of courts to inquire into the reasons underlying a jury's verdict does not mean that a jury ought to disregard the court's instructions. A juror who allows racial or gender bias to influence assessment of the case breaches the compact and renounces his or her oath."

- J.E.B. v. Alabama ex rel. T.B., 511 U.S. 127 (1994)
